CSE211 Web Programming – Spring 2026

Lab Work/Demo Page

The demo page

When to submit? By Tue 19 May 2026 11:55 P.M.

What to submit? The demo page you produced in your lab work over the semester and the accompanying Excel sheet. Submit a single compressed archive (e.g. .zip or .rar file) containing:

1. The completed demo page spreadsheet indicating all the HTML elements, CSS properties and JavaScript Properties and Methods that you have used in the demo page.
2. The demo page files include:
    a. All HTML files
    b. All CSS files
    c. All JavaScript files
    d. All Media files used

How to Submit? Through the CSE211 page on the KSIU LMS.

This is a team project. Teams are composed of 1-3 students each. Each team will submit a single demo page, but all members of the team must be fully aware of all the features used in the demo page and be prepared to answer questions about it.

The Demo Page:

You will develop a demonstration website (consisting of multiple pages) displaying all the HTML, CSS and JavaScript elements, attributes, properties and methods. Enter a "1" next to any HTML, CSS or JavaScript feature you used on the demo page in the enclosed excel sheet.
